CHILD CUSTODY INFORMATION

The following information is needed if your child does not reside with both natural parents due to separation or divorce. The parent with whom the child resides will be considered the parent of record and custodial parent; however, the non-custodial parent will have access to the child's records in the absence of a court order forbidding it. It is the responsibility of the custodial parent to provide the school with any limiting court order.

Child's Name: _____

Name of Custodial parent with whom the child resides: _____

Name of non-custodial parent: _____

Address (if known) _____

Has custody been established through a court order? (Please attach)

_____ Yes _____ No _____ pending (date to be finalized: _____)

(If answer is yes, a copy of the court order must be supplied to the school office to be kept on file.)

If there is a court order, does it limit the non-custodial parent access to school records?

_____ Yes _____ No

(If answer is yes, a copy of the court order must be supplied to the school office to be kept on file.)

May the child be released from school to the non-custodial parent at any time?

_____ Yes _____ No

(If no, a copy of a document providing legal justification MUST be supplied to the school office to be kept on file. Examples: child abuse report, police report, child custody order, restraining order, Children & Youth Services report. We can not deny the request of a non-custodial parent to sign-out his/her child unless there is legal documentation or the principal has substantiated proof indicating that this action threatens the safety of the child.)

Please note any additional information regarding custody of which the school should be aware.
